- b. Nothing herein shall restrict the right of Department to invoke the Department Guarantee and other guarantees, securities furnished, enforce the Deed of Indemnity and pursue such other rights and/ or remedies that may be available Department under law or otherwise.
- c. The termination hereof shall not affect any accrued right or liability of either Party nor affect the operation of the provisions of the Contract that are expressly or by implication intended to come into or continue in force on or after such termination.

4.20.2. Liquidated Damages

- a. Notwithstanding Department's right to cancel the order, Liquidated Damages (LD) for late delivery at 1% (One percent) of the undelivered portion of order value per week will be charged for every week's delay in the specified delivery schedule subject to a maximum of 10% of the value of the contract. No Damage will be charged in case of force measure beyond control of the Bidder.
- b. Please note that the above LD for delay in delivery and delay in commissioning are independent of each other and shall be levied as the case may be.
- c. Department reserve its right to recover these amounts by any mode such as adjusting from any payments to be made by Department to the Bidder. Liquidated damages will be calculated on per week basis.
- d. The cumulative and aggregate limit of LD for delay in delivery and LD for delay in commissioning would be limited to maximum of 10% of the Monthly Professional Fee. The aggregate liability of the Consultant/ Advisor shall in no event exceed the total value of the fee received under this Contract.

4.20.3. Dispute Resolution Mechanism

The Department and the supplier shall make every effort to resolve amicably by direct negotiations, any disagreement or dispute, arising between them under supply order.

If after 30 days from the commencement of such direct negotiations, the dispute is not resolved it shall be referred to Secretary, Department of Industries, , Government of Jharkhand shall be final and binding upon both parties.

Pending the submission of and/or decision on a dispute, difference or claim or until the matter is decided by Principal Secretary, Department of Industries, , Government of Jharkhand, the supplier shall continue to perform all its obligations under this agreement without prejudice of final adjustment in accordance with such award.

The Department may terminate this contract, by giving a written notice of termination of minimum 30 days, to the supplier, if the supplier fails to comply with any decision delivered by Secretary, Department of Industries, , Government of Jharkhand.

4.20.4 Notices

Notice or other communications given or required to be given under the Contract shall be in writing and shall be e-mailed followed by hand-delivery with acknowledgement thereof, or transmitted by pre-paid registered post or courier. Any notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been validly given on date of delivery if hand delivered & if sent by registered post than on expiry of seven days from the date of posting.

4.20.5 Force Majeure

Force Majeure is herein defined as any cause, which is beyond the control of the selected Bidder or Department as the case may be which they could not foresee or with a reasonable amount of diligence could not have foreseen and which substantially affect the performance of the Contract, such as:

- a. Natural phenomenon, including but not limited to floods, droughts, earthquakes and epidemics.
- b. Acts of any government, including but not limited to war, declared or undeclared priorities, quarantines and embargos.
- c. Terrorist attack, public unrest in work area provided either party shall within 10 days from occurrence of such a cause, notifies the other in writing of such causes. The Bidder or Department shall not be liable for delay in performing his/ her obligations resulting from any force majeure cause as referred to and/ or defined above. Any delay beyond 30 days shall lead to termination of Contract by parties and all obligations expressed quantitatively shall be calculated as on date of termination. Notwithstanding this, provisions relating to indemnity, confidentiality survive termination of the Contract.

Force Majeure shall not include any events caused due to acts/ omissions of such Party or result from a breach/ contravention of any of the terms of the Contract, Proposal and/ or the Tender. It shall also not include any default on the part of a party due to its negligence or failure to implement the stipulated/ proposed precautions, as were required to be taken under the Contract. The failure or occurrence of a delay in performance of any of the obligations of either party shall constitute a Force Majeure event only where such failure or delay could not have reasonably been foreseen, or where despite the presence of adequate and stipulated safeguards the failure to perform obligations has occurred. In such an event, the affected party shall inform the other party in writing within five days of the occurrence of such event. The Department will make the payments due for Services rendered till the occurrence of Force Majeure. However, any failure or lapse on the part of the Selected

Bidder in performing any obligation as is necessary and proper, to negate the damage due to projected force majeure events or to mitigate the damage that may be caused due to the above mentioned events or the failure to provide adequate disaster management/ recovery or any failure in setting up a contingency mechanism would not constitute force majeure, as set out above.

In case of a Force Majeure, all Parties will endeavor to agree on an alternate mode of performance in order to ensure the continuity of Service and implementation of the obligations of a party under the Contract and to minimize any adverse consequences of Force Majeure.

4.20.6 Failure to agree with Terms and Conditions of the RFP

Failure of the successful Bidder to agree with the Terms & Conditions of the RFP shall constitute sufficient grounds for the annulment of the award, in which event Department may award the contract to the next best value Bidder or call for new Proposals from the interested Bidders or invoke the PBG of the most responsive Bidder.
